RE: "Team 100: Golden Rolodex"

Dear Elaine,

During the last several years, I've had the privilege of getting to know you and even exchanging referrals with many of you. As I was searching for a certain professional recently, it occurred to me that it would be great if we both knew ALL of the best professionals to refer our clients to for WHATEVER need they had—a Team 100. I figured that I know at least 50 other professionals – everything from acupuncturists to mortgage brokers and writers.

This year, I'm planning to help clients and Team 100 members even more by posting it on my website, www.phelps-creek.com/Team100Resource.asp.

I would like you to be part of my Team 100! This listing will serve as free exposure for you and to the clients of every other member of my Team 100.

Are you interested? If so, take just a few minutes to send me a short list of the ways you best serve your clients and include your contact information; I'm sending you some of mine as an example (you only have to send me 3-5!).

My goal is to have a professional resource for virtually ANY need my clients might have. I'm working on the web page now and I know it will be an easy-to-access and valuable resource for you and your clients, too.

Here's to working together to serve even more clients!

Warmly,

P.S. Please consider my Team 100 Rolodex to be your resource, too! I'm happy to share!
